

WINTER

It is always good to take a short look back and remind ourselves of how good God has been, and how much he has done for us.

NOVEMBER

November was a wonderful month- truly a time to be thankful. We launched services for our youth and that very same week some of the youth decided to form their own worship band. We were so pleased with their heart to worship, that we have them leading worship for Family Sunday every first Sunday of the month. Bonnie has since taken over the youth services and last week a youth group from another church here in the city decided to visit our group as guests. It is so important that the young people in the city become connected.

DECEMBER

December marked the beginning of the most beautiful season in Zagreb- Advent. Our worship band (as usual) played in the town square. 50 minutes of non- stop worship echoed throughout the city square of Zagreb. People would walk by, stop and listen for a song or two, and then continue on their way. It is our prayer that the Holy Spirit continues to water those seeds that were sown. Five days later, our Youth band, Salvation, played, as well. It was exciting to see them out there proclaiming Christ through song. A whole group of people that none of us knew gathered in front of the stage and watched their entire concert!

JANUARY

Bonnie's parents were with us in December to celebrate Christmas. It had been 20 years since they'd spent Christmas together. Bonnie's father was also the guest speaker for us at a conference that we hosted during the first week in January. This conference was definitely used of God to bring about a breakthrough in many of our people.

A few months ago Mario met a group of businessmen from Brazil who's goal is to aid

Christian businessmen in witnessing to their colleagues. They organize dinners for businessmen in a nice hotel, and provide an atmosphere in which successful businessmen are able to share their faith with others. Since Mario is well connected with the Christian businessmen in Zagreb and throughout Croatia, they asked for his assistance in gathering them for an informational meeting in January. Their goal is to host their first dinner during the first weeks of March. A couple of unsaved businessmen also attended the informational meeting, and accepted Christ for the first time in their lives during that meeting. Praise God for his goodness!

Our family is doing well. Bonnie and the children are back to school after the Christmas holidays, and are busy with all the activities in which they are involved. Bonnie's band completed 3 more songs in the studio, and are making plans to compete their new worship album by the end of this year. They are recording in Croatian and English so please keep this project in your prayers as they are already working on getting some of the songs onto radio in the US.

We are truly thankful for a strong finish in 2018, and an even stronger beginning to 2019. Thank you all for your faithful prayers and support. We pray you are abundantly blessed in this new year.

Blessings
